COMMUNICATIONS FROM CITY OFFICIALS

March 2, 1942.

Honorable President and Members of the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis, Indiana.

Gentlemen:

In Re: Appropriation Ordinance No. 3, 1942

I beg leave to report that in accordance with the laws of the State of Indiana, I caused notice of publication to be inserted in the Indianapolis Star and the Indianapolis Commercial on February 20th, 1942, that taxpayers would have the right to be heard on the above ordinance at the regular meeting of the Common Council, to be held on the 2nd day of March, 1942, and by posting copy of said notice in the City Hall, Court House and Police Station.

Very truly yours,

JOHN M. LAYTON,
City Clerk.

March 2, 1942.

To the Honorable President and Members of the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis.

Gentlemen:

I herewith enclose copies of a General Ordinance which the statute, Acts of 1933, chapter 233, requires to be passed by the Common Council on or before the first day of April of each year in which elections for city officials are held.

The above statute fixes the maximum amount of the annual salaries for certain enumerated elective and appointive officials of the city and the amounts of such salaries so fixed by ordinance remain effective during the ensuing four years term, commencing January 1, 1943, and cannot be changed during that term. The enclosed ordinance covers such officials who are enumerated in the above statute.

By an act of 1941 the salary of the County Treasurer, acting ex officio as City Treasurer, has been eliminated on and after January 1, 1942, so the salary fixed for such officer is payable only for the year 1943. All the others continue during their service for the next four years. Under the above statute the maximum sums thus enacted can be fixed by the Common Council at any amount not less than 80% of such maximum amounts.

The salaries and compensations of all other officials and employees must be fixed annually by the Mayor and approved by the Common Council at the time of the adoption of the annual budget. The Attorney General has recently ruled that after the adoption of the annual budget the Common Council possesses no power to increase any salary or compensation so fixed, except in a case where a lump sum has been appropriated for an entire group of employees, without indicating the number or rate of pay therefor.

Respectfully yours,

DEPARTMENT OF LAW.

By Edward H. Knight,
Corporation Counsel.

March 16, 1942.

To the Honorable President and
Members of the Common Council

Gentlemen:

The Chief of Police informs me that the Police Department is desperately in need of three Fingerprint Classifiers because of the tremendous increase in this type of work, due in a large part to the war emergency.

I am also informed that two of the present Civilian Clerks in the Police Department can be transferred to this work of classifying fingerprints, which would release police officers assigned to this work. The position of Scientific Laboratory Investigator is now vacant, and I understand that this work is being successfully performed by the present personnel.

Upon the recommendation of the Chief of Police and the Board of Public Safety, I have abolished the position of Scientific Laboratory Investigator and the two positions of Civilian Clerks in the Police Department of the city and have created three new positions of Fingerprint Classifiers in said department, at an annual salary not to exceed $1,600.00 each, subject to your approval.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 6, 1942.

To the Honorable President and
Members of the Common Council, of the City of Indianapolis.

Gentlemen:

Attached hereto you will please find eighteen copies of Appropriation Ordinance No. 6, 1942.

Appropriation Ordinance No. 3, 1942, with reference to section 1 of said ordinance was not valid due to the fact that through an oversight a notice to taxpayers as to this additional appropriation was not given.

The present Appropriation Ordinance corrects the previous oversight and if it would meet with the council's approval, a passage of the same under the suspension of your rules would greatly facilitate the matter, particularly in view of the fact that the council has already approved the same.

I respectfully recommend the passage of this ordinance.

Very respectfully yours,

JAMES E. DEERY,
City Controller.

AN ORDINANCE supplementary to Appropriation Ordinance No. 3, 1942, and appropriating the sum of Fourteen Thousand Three Hundred Eighty-two and twenty-three hundredths Dollars ($14,382.23) to certain funds in the Department of Public Health and Charities, and repealing Section 1 of Appropriation Ordinance No. 3, 1942; and fixing a time when the same shall take effect.

WHEREAS, by General Ordinance No. 11, 1942, certain positions of nurses in the Flower Mission Hospital, under the Department of Public Health and Charities, for which annual salaries aggregating $13,560.00 had been appropriated, were abolished, leaving a balance in the aforesaid total appropriations for the several salaries thereof, after payment of the salaries to and including April 1, 1942, in the sum of $10,542.23, which unexpended balance of said fund thereupon lapsed into the General Tuberculosis Fund; and by General Ordinance No. 12, 1942, a lump sum of $17,400.00, as annual compensation for the salaries and wages of regular nurses in said Flower Mission Hospital was established, whereby the total of all such salaries and wages for the year 1942 was increased in a total amount of $3,840.00, which sum, together with the aforesaid lapsed balance of $10,342.23, the two totalling $14,382.23, must be appropriated to meet such expenditures; and

WHEREAS, by Section 1 of Appropriation Ordinance No. 3, 1942, the total sum aforesaid was appropriated for such purpose, but such appropriation in said Section 1 was invalid, because by inadvertance it was omitted from the published notice thereof, and it is now necessary to supplement said ordinance and supply such fund; and

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA:

ARTICLE I: ESTABLISHMENT OF BUREAU OF FIRE PREVENTION, PROVIDING OFFICERS THEREFOR, AND DEFINING THE POWERS AND DUTIES OF SUCH BUREAU AND OFFICERS.

Paragraph 1: Bureau Established. A Bureau of Fire Prevention in the Fire Department of the Department of Public Safety of the City of Indianapolis is hereby established. Said Bureau is to be operated under the supervision of the Board of Public Safety. The Board of Public Safety shall detail such other qualified, regular members of the Fire Department as inspectors as shall be necessary from time to time. Technical inspectors and/or clerical assistants may be employed by said Bureau in the same manner as is provided by law for the employment of other employes of the City of Indianapolis.

Paragraph 2: Duties of Bureau. It shall be the duty of the Officers of the Bureau of Fire Prevention to enforce all laws and ordinances covering the following subjects when not conflicting with or otherwise specifically provided for by law and/or ordinance:

(a) The prevention of fires;

(b) The storage and use of explosives and flammables;

(c) The installation and maintenance of private fire alarm systems and fire extinguishing equipments;

(d) The maintenance and regulation of fire escapes;

(e) The means and adequacy of exit, in case of fire and/or explosion, from all places in which numbers of persons work, live or congregate, from time to time, for any purpose insofar as the regulation of such place is not already within the jurisdiction of any other department of the city or state by any other provision of law and/or ordinance;

(f) The investigation of the cause, origin and circumstances of fires. The said bureau shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as are set forth in other sections of this ordinance and as may be conferred and imposed from time to time by law and/or ordinance. It shall also make such reports and convey such information to the Bureau of Buildings and/or the State Fire Marshal's office when such information obtained during an investigation obviously relates to violations of rules or regulations over which said Department and/or Office has authority.

Paragraph 3: Entrance to buildings. The Chief of the Fire Department, Chief of the Bureau of Fire Prevention or any authorized member of said bureau and, upon occasion, any other duly authorized member of the Fire Department may at all reasonable hours enter any building or premises within his jurisdiction for the purpose of making any inspection or investigation which, under the provisions of this ordinance, he or they may deem necessary to be made. Said inspector or investigator shall produce certified credentials on demand of building or premises owner and/or occupant.

It shall be the duty of the Chief of the Fire Department to inspect, or cause to be inspected, by members and/or officers of the Fire Department or Bureau of Fire Prevention, as often as necessary, but not less than two times a year, all specially hazardous manufacturing processes, storages or installations of gases, chemicals, oils, explosives and flammable materials, all interior fire alarms and automatic sprinkler systems, and such other hazards or appliances as the Chief of the Fire Department shall designate; and, shall make such orders as may be necessary for the enforcement of the laws and ordinances governing the same and for safeguarding of life and property from fire and/or explosion.

Paragraph 5: Inspections of Buildings. It shall be the duty of the Chief of the Fire Department to inspect, or cause to be inspected, by members and/or officers of the Fire Department or Bureau of Fire Prevention, as often as may be necessary and at least once a year, all buildings and premises, excluding the interiors of buildings used exclusively for dwelling purposes in which not over two families regularly reside, for the purpose of ascertaining and causing to be corrected any conditions liable to cause fire or explosion, or any violation of the provisions or intent of any law or ordinance of the city affecting fire hazards or safety of occupants. Premises as above mentioned shall be construed to include public streets, alleys and roads as well as yards whether enclosed or not which surround said buildings. When any of the following conditions are found by the inspector he shall order the same to be removed or remedied by those responsible for such correction:

Paragraph 7: Service of Orders. The service of such orders as mentioned in Paragraphs 4, 5, and 6 may be made upon the occupant of the premises to whom it is directed, either by delivering a copy of same to such occupant personally or by delivering the same to and leaving it with any person in charge of the premises; or in case no such person is found upon the premises, by affixing a copy thereof in a conspicuous place on the door to the entrance of said premises. Whenever it may be necessary to serve such an order upon the owner of premises, such order may be served either by delivering to and leaving with the said owner a copy of the said order; or, if such owner is absent from or residing out of the jurisdiction of the officer making the order, by mailing such copy to the owner's last known post office address. Such order shall forthwith be complied with by the owner or occupant of such building or premises.

Paragraph 8: Appeal of Orders. Such orders, as issued under provisions set forth in Paragraph 7, may be appealed in writing by said owner or occupant or his duly authorized agent, within twenty-four hours to the Chief of the Fire Department. Said appeal shall be reviewed by the Chief within five days when his decision shall be forwarded to the appellant. If further appeal be filed, final decision shall be made by an arbitration board consisting of the Board of Public Safety. Such final order shall remain in full force and shall be complied with within a fixed period of time as set forth in said final decision. However, any such owner or occupant may, within five days after the making or affirming of any such order, file his petition with the court of proper jurisdiction, praying a review of such order and it shall be the duty of such Court to hear the same within not less than five days nor more than ten days from the time the petition is filed, and to make such order in the premises as right and justice may require. Such parties so appealing shall file with said court within two days a bond in an amount to be fixed by the court, to be approved by the court, conditioned to pay all costs of such appeal in case such appellant fails to sustain his appeal or the same be dismissed for any cause.

Paragraph 9: Fire Cause. The Bureau of Fire Prevention or any officer or member of the Fire Department designated by the Chief of the Fire Department shall investigate the cause, origin and circumstances of every fire occurring in the city by which property has been destroyed or damaged, or in which there has been personal injury or loss of life, and so far as possible shall determine whether the fire is the result of carelessness or design. Such investigations shall be begun immediately upon the occurrence of such a fire by the inspector in whose district the fire occurs, and if it appears to the investigator that such a fire is of suspicious origin, he shall convey his findings immediately to the Chief of the Fire Department. The investigator shall also take immediate charge of the physical evidence, shall notify the proper authorities designated by law and/or ordinance to pursue the investigation of such matters, and shall further cooperate with such authorities in the further collection of evidence and in the prosecution of the case. Every fire shall be reported in writing to the Bureau of Fire Prevention within twenty-four hours after the occurrence of the same, by the officer in whose jurisdiction such a fire has occurred. Reports shall be in such form as prescribed by the Chief of the Fire Department, and shall contain a statement of all facts relating to the cause, origin and circumstances of such fire, extent of damage thereof, insurance upon such property, and such other required information.

Paragraph 10: Corporation Counsel. When deemed necessary the Bureau of Fire Prevention is authorized to obtain the services of the corporation counsel in lending legal assistance in connection with investigations or prosecutions pertaining to fire when such fire, in their opinion, is of suspicious origin.

Paragraph 11: Public Buildings. It shall be the duty of the Bureau of Fire Prevention, under orders of the Board of Public Safety, to instruct and require all teachers, custodians, and superintendents of all schools to keep all doors and exits unlocked from within during school hours, as well as to hold one fire drill each month during school terms; and to require all custodians and/or operators of buildings in which numbers of persons work, live or congregate from time to time for any purpose, to keep all doors and exits unlocked from within at all times when such building or place is so occupied. This is not to be construed to include institutions which are used for the safekeeping of criminals or the insane or to properties occupied by and under the jurisdiction of the national government.

Paragraph 12: Records and Reports. The Bureau of Fire Prevention shall keep a record of all fires and all facts concerning the same, including statistics as to the extent of such fires and damage caused thereby, and whether such losses were covered by insurance, and if so, in what amount. Such records shall be made daily from reports made by the inspectors authorized by the provisions of this ordinance. Such daily records shall be summarized at least annually into a report to be submitted to the Chief of the Fire Department, for his approval. An annual report shall then be transmitted to the Board of Public Safety together with recommendations to be made by the Chief of the Fire Department for any amendments to this ordinance which, in his judgment, shall be desirable. Said annual report shall be submitted to the Chief of the Fire Department not later than January 15th, and to the Board of Public Safety not later than January 30th and shall be returned to the Bureau of Fire Prevention for permanent record, after having been approved by the Board of Public Safety, not later than March 1st, of the calendar year following that covered by said report. All reports and records shall be made public. The Bureau of Fire Prevention shall also keep on hand a file containing reports of properties inspected, which shall include sketches of buildings in which hazardous occupancies, as listed in Article III are found, together with details of private protection devices on the premises.

ARTICLE II: GENERAL PROVISIONS OF REGULATIONS PROVIDING FOR FIRE PREVENTION AND PROTECTION IN CONNECTION WITH HAZARDOUS MATERIALS AND PROCESSES.

Paragraph 101: Ordinance Exemption. Nothing contained in this ordinance shall be construed as applying to the transportation of any article or thing in conformity with the regulations prescribed by the Interstate Commerce Commission, nor as applying to the military or naval forces of the United States.

Paragraph 102: Definition. The word "person" wherever used in this ordinance shall be construed to include person, persons, firm or corporation.

Paragraph 103: Interpretation. The word "approved" when applied to materials, type of construction and appliances refers to approval by the Chief of the Bureau of Fire Prevention as a result Paragraph 104: Permits. A permit is the written authority and manifestation of approval of the Bureau of Fire Prevention, issued by the Fire Prevention Bureau pursuant to this ordinance, to have, keep, store, use, manufacture, sell, handle and transport explosives, flammable materials and rubbish, as hereinafter defined, and to construct, operate or maintain establishments hereinafter specified.

Paragraph 105: Refusal of Permits. Whenever the Bureau of Fire Prevention shall reject or refuse to grant a permit, or when it is claimed that provisions of this or any other ordinance, relating thereto, do not apply, or when it is claimed that the true intent and meaning of this ordinance or any regulations have been misconstrued or misinterpreted, and the permit applied for having been refused by the bureau, then the person may appeal from the decision, in writing, as outlined in Paragraph 8.

Paragraph 106: Disputes over tests of Flammable Liquids. In determining the flash point of flammable liquids all tests shall be made in accordance with methods as adopted by the American Society for Testing Materials, but the Tag. Paragraph 107: Additions to present provisions The President of the Board of Public Safety, Chief of the Fire Department and Chief of the Bureau of Fire Prevention shall act as a committee on determination, and specify any new materials, processes or occupancies, and trades which shall require permits, in addition to those now enumerated in this ordinance. The Chief of the Bureau of Fire Prevention shall post such list in a conspicuous place in his office, and shall also maintain in his office details and descriptive drawings showing approved and acceptable methods of storing, handling or protecting such materials as shall be deemed as requiring a permit.

Paragraph 108: Intent of Ordinance. The intent of this ordinance is to safeguard and restrict the storage, handling and use of dangerous and hazardous materials to a reasonable degree with re-

Compliance with Regulations of the National Board of Fire Underwriters shall be prima facie evidence of such approved manner. The Chief of the Bureau of Fire Prevention shall maintain a public file of the Regulations of the National Board of Fire Underwriters, which shall be deemed as advisory requirements to this ordinance insofar as they can be applied to each particular installation for which a permit is required.

Paragraph 109: Modification of Provisions. The Chief of the Bureau of Fire Prevention shall have power to modify any of the provisions of this ordinance upon application in writing by the owner or leasee, or his duly authorized agent, when there are practical difficulties in the way of carrying out the strict letter of this ordinance, provided the spirit of this ordinance shall be observed, public safety secured and substantial justice done. The particulars of such modification when granted or allowed and the decision of the Chief of the Bureau of Fire Prevention thereon shall be entered upon the records of the department and a signed copy shall be furnished the applicant.

Paragraph 110: Inspections for Licenses. Before permits may be issued an authorized representative of the bureau shall inspect and approve the receptacles, vehicles, buildings or storage places to be used.

Every opening in such enclosing walls shall be protected by a fire door or window approved for this purpose; no opening to any upper floor shall be permitted.

Paragraph 223: The use of any flammable liquid for washing parts or removing dirt or grease is prohibited in every garage or repair shop, except where carried on in a special closed machine approved for that purpose or in a special cut-off room or compartment.

Paragraph 224: All gasoline exclusive of that in the tanks of vehicles shall be stored in underground tanks, provided however, that there may be in each garage one or more approved portable wheeled tanks, each of a capacity not exceeding sixty gallons, to be used for transferring such liquid from the storage tank; the number of these wheeled tanks shall be fixed for each garage by the Chief of the Bureau of Fire Prevention. The reservoirs of motor vehicles shall be filled directly through hose from pumps attached to such portable tanks or by hose coupled to permanent filling stations connected with the main storage tanks. Paragraph 352: Not to exceed 100 cubic feet of loose combustible fibre may be kept in any building provided storage is in a metal-lined wooden bin, equipped with a self-closing metal-lined cover.

Paragraph 353: Quantities exceeding 100 cubic feet of loose combustible fibre, but not exceeding 500 cubic feet, may be stored in rooms or compartments having floor, walls and ceiling constructed of material possessing sufficient fire resistance to withstand a standard one-hour fire test. For this purpose construction consisting of one-half inch approved asbestos or plaster board covered with sheet metal and securely fastened by 2-inch nails, will be considered satisfactory. Openings into such rooms or compartments shall be cut off from other parts of the building by approvde fire doors.

All electrical wiring and equipment in finishing shops shall be in accord with the National Electrical Code rules for Hazardous Locations. Where spraying is done in properly arranged spray booths, portions of the room more than 20 feet from a booth need not be considered Hazardous Locations under the National Electrical Code, unless such portions are so classified as the result of other operations. In the area within 20 feet of properly arranged spray booths the National Electrical Code rules for Hazardous Location may be modified to allow motors of the totally enclosed type or of the open induction type having no brushes, make or brake contacts, collectors or other arcing or sparking parts, and to allow lamps of the enclosed vapor-tight type.

All piping for conveying gas or liquid shall be suitable for a safe working pressure of not less than 125 pounds. All piping for conveying gas or liquid shall be tested and proven free from leaks at 1½ times the pressure to which it may be subjected. Joints in wrought iron and steel piping shall be of welded construction, or shall be made with fittings capable of withstanding a pressure of at least 125 pounds per square inch for pressures less than 100 pounds per square inch; extra heavy fittings shall be used for pressures exceeding 100 pounds per square inch. Cast-iron fittings shall not be used. Joints on brass or copper pipe, or approved seamless copper, brass or other approved non-ferrous tubing shall be by means of approved fittings. In any system in which compressed gas in liquid form without pressure reduction enters the building only heavy walled seamless brass or copper tubing shall be used, with an internal diameter not greater than 3/32-inch, and a wall thickness not less than 3/64-inch; provided that this requirement shall not apply to commercial gas plants, bulk stations where cylinders, drums, or tank trucks are filled, nor to industrial vaporizer buildings. Piping or tubing shall be run as directly as practicable without sags, or traps; provisions shall be made for expansion, contraction, jarring and vibration and for settling of container. At points where piping passes through walls, suitable provision shall be made to insure gas tightness and all piping and tubing shall be tested and proven tight after all connections have been made. Piping outside buildings shall be protected against mechanical injury.

Paragraph 391: The filling pipe inlet terminal shall not be located inside a building. On all containers where inlet terminal prevents its location adjacent to the container, the inlet terminal shall be enclosed in a substantial manner so as to prevent mechanical injury and tampering by unauthorized persons. Such terminal shall be located not less than 10 feet from any building and where practicable not less than 5 feet from any driveway and shall be kept locked when not in use. All containers, other than cylinders and drums complying with I. C. C. specifications, shall have all connections, except relief connections, equipped with approved automatic excess flow valves, provided, however, that fill connections shall be equipped with approved back-pressure check valves, to prevent discharge of contents in case connections are broken. These excess flow and back-pressure check valves shall be located inside of the container or at a point outside where the line enters the containers; in the latter case, installation shall be made in such a manner that any undue strain beyond the excess flow valve will cause breakage on the discharge end of the excess flow valve and not between the container and such valve. Gauging devices which do not involve the flow of liquid or which are so constructed that outward flow of container contents shall not exceed that passed by a No. 54 drill size need not be equipped with excess flow valves. All connections to containers, except gauge connections and safety relief connections, shall be provided with shut-off valves close to the container.

Paragraph 392: Safety Devices. Every storage and supply container, and every vaporizer shall be provided with sufficient relief area which cannot be shut off by stop valves. Discharge shall be at a pressure not more than 125 per cent. of the designed working pressure. The area of the relief and the size and length of the discharge piping, which shall extend to the outside air, shall be such that a pressure in excess of 150 per cent. of the designed working pressure will not be developed. Relief areas shall be as calculated by Fetterly's formula for uninsulated pressure vessels and an exposure temperature of 1,200 degrees Fahrenheit as promulgated by the Bureau of Explosives of the American Railway Association. Underground storage containers need have only 30 per cent. of the specified relief area.

Paragraph 393: Vaporizing and Housing.

(a) In domestic installations no liquid or gas shall be led into the building at a pressure exceeding 20 pounds gauge. The initial pressure reducing device shall be installed outside of building, except in the case of a vaporizer house.

(b) The vaporizer shall be located outside of buildings except those buildings devoted exclusively to gas manufacturing and distribution operations; but may be located in a house or shed, of fireproof construction, well ventilated from points near the floor and roof. Except that on systems of small volume utilizing vaporization supplied without artificial means, they may be installed in basements of buildings provided such vaporizers are located close to point at which pipe to vaporizer enters building.

(c) Where a device is employed for premixing the gas with air, such device shall be provided with means for automatically shutting off the gas mixing device before a combustible mixture is generated, except where the combustible mixtures are desired and generated, in which case flame arresters shall be installed.

Paragraph 394: Approved gauging devices shall be employed on all storage containers, other cylinders and drums.

Paragraph 395: The charging of customers' containers or the changing or charging of cylinders or drums should preferably be by daylight only. No artificial light, involving flames or sparks, shall be used in the vicinity of the charging operation. Approved explosion-proof flashlights may be employed.

Paragraph 396: In the immediate vicinity of storage containers, in vaporizer or pump houses, in cylinder filling plants, in gas plants, and similar locations where liquefied gases are in liquid form in large quantities, all electrical installations shall be in strict accordance with the requirements of the National Electrical Code for Class I hazardous locations.

Paragraph 397: The total amount of liquefied gas, by weight, shall be limited to the following percentages of the weight of the water capacity of the container, depending upon the specific gravity at 60 degrees Fahrenheit of the liquid: For 0.400 specific gravity, 32 per cent. for above ground and 35 per cent. for underground; for 0.500 specific gravity, 41 per cent. for above ground and 44 per cent. for underground; for 0.600 specific gravity, 53 per cent. for above ground and 56 per cent. for underground; and for intermediate or higher specific gravities, corresponding percentages; but in no case shall the amount of liquid be such as to fill the container at a temperature of 130 degrees Fahrenheit for above ground, and 105 degrees Fahrenheit for underground.

Paragraph 398: Transfer of Liquid. All transfer of liquid or gases shall be by piping or hose, tested to 5 times the designed working pressure. All connections shall be free from leaks.

Paragraph 399: Cylinders or Drums.

(a) Cylinders or drums which are not acceptable for distribution in interstate commerce and marked to the effect that they comply with the Interstate Commerce Commission specifications and regulations shall not be used.

(b) When cylinders or drums are not in use, outlet valves shall be kept tightly closed even though cylinders may be considered empty.

Paragraph 400: Location of Cylinders or Drums and Regulating Valves.

(a) Cylinders or drums and regulating equipment shall be located outside of buildings other than those especially provided for the purpose. The discharge from safety reliefs shall be located not less than 5 feet away from any opening in any building which is below the level of such discharge.

(b) Systems shall be provided with a well ventilated housing for enclosing cylinders, drums and regulating valves, or otherwise protected from tampering or exposure to the weather.

(c) Extra cylinders shall be stored in an approved ventilated enclosure located outside of main building, and so designed and constructed as to afford protection from tampering, extreme heat and accumulations of ice and snow. No readily combustible material shall be stored within 10 feet of cylinders or drums.

Paragraph 401: Valves.

(a) Valves in the assembly of multiple cylinder or drum systems shall be so arranged that the change of cylinders or drums may be made without shutting down the system.

(b) Every system shall be provided with means for shutting off the gas supply to the building.

Paragraph 402: In domestic installations no gas shall be led into the building at a pressure exceeding 5 pounds, and no liquid at a pressure exceeding 20 pounds.

Paragraph 403: No tubing, valves, hose, pressure or other gauging devices, vaporizers, pumps and other parts of systems, or completed systems shall be used without the approval of the Chief of the Fire Prevention Bureau, except that examination and listing of Underwriters' Laboratories, Inc., will be accepted.

Paragraph 404: Tank Trucks and Trailers. Tank trucks and trailers shall be classified and constructed as described in Paragraphs 383-384. Piping, safety devices, filling and the loading and unloading of tank trucks and trailers shall be as specified for containers. Pumps of suitable design and properly protected may be mounted upon trucks and trailers and may be driven by the truck motor power take-off or proper mechanical means. The pumps shall be equipped with suitable pressure actuated by-pass valves permitting flow from pump discharge to pump suction when the pump discharge pressure rises above a predetermined point. Every tank truck and trailer shall be provided with properly attached rear steel bumpers. The rear bumpers or chassis extensions shall be so arranged as to adequately protect the tank, piping, valves and fittings in case of collision.

GAS APPLIANCES AND CONNECTIONS.

Paragraph 410: Shut-Off Valves. An outside valve shall be installed on every gas service pipe regardless of size that supplies large stores or factories, or places of public assembly such as churches, theatres, motion picture theatres, schools, and hospitals, and on every service pipe 2½ inches or larger in diameter.

Paragraph 414: Gas connections to stoves, heaters and other appliances shall be made by metal pipe or by approved metal tubing securely fastened in place, except that for devices which require a movable connection, approved, flexible tubing as specified below may be used provided there is no shut-off on the device.

Paragraph 415: It shall be unlawful for any person to use, sell, expose or offer for sale, or to install or fix, any tubular connection of fabric intended for any illuminating gas fixtures, stove, heater or lamp, or other gas appliances, unless such tube connection, hose or similar device shall be approved by the Chief of the Bureau of Fire Prevention in accordance with the following specifications:

(a) Gas tubing shall be made up in suitable lengths with end pieces securely attached by the manufacturer.

(b) All gas tubing must be made up of a strong gas-tight metal core with rubber packing and covered with a layer of good quality rubber or other suitable gas-tight material and a braided cloth covering. Such layers or covering or rubber to be put on over the metal core in such a way that it will of itself form a gas-tight wall.

(c) Each length of tubing shall be labelled by the manufacturer with a tag attached to the tubing or a marking on the end piece, or both. The inscription shall state the manufacturer's name, the length of the tubing or any other information pertinent to the public use of this piece of tubing.

Paragraph 417: Any appliance which consumes large quantities of gas, or which is automatically controlled and which depends upon a pilot light for ignition, shall be connected to an adequate flue.

Paragraph 418: Gas burners installed in low pressure steam boilers or hot water boilers or furnaces, used for heating buildings, shall be provided with a thermostatic pilot light so constructed and adjusted that no gas can flow through the main burner unless the pilot light is burning, or with some other similar type of safety device serving this same end. The operation of the safety device which shuts off the main gas supply, shall not depend on the closing of an electric circuit.

FLAMMABLE LIQUIDS.

Paragraph 430: Application to New and Existing Installations, Etc. This ordinance shall apply to all new plants, stores, equipments and installations; and, except as otherwise specified, to existing plants, stores, equipments, and installations which constitute a distinct hazard to adjoining property, in so far as the intent of the sections can be reasonably fulfilled. Paragraph 444: Special Storage Rooms or Buildings. Special rooms or buildings for storage of flammable liquids and the handling and use of flammable liquids shall, where called for by other sections of this ordinance, be constructed as follows: provided however that when in the opinion of the Chief of the Bureau of Fire Prevention the extent of the hazard formed is more than moderate, based upon a consideration of the quantity and nature of flammable liquids involved and the extent of mixing operations together with the character of construction, of the building in which the proposed storage and mixing operations are to be located, and of exposed buildings, construction affording a greater degree of protection shall be required. Walls shall be of a construction which will afford at least one hour protection when classified in accordance with the standard fire test specifications; they shall be continuous from floor to ceiling and shall be securely anchored. The following types of construction will be acceptable:

Metal lath encased in solid cement or gypsum plaster not less than 2½ inches thick.

Gypsum or cement plaster at least ¾-inch thick on metal lath on each side of stud partitions.

Ceiling shall be of construction equivalent to not less than ¾-inch of cement or gypsum plaster on metal lath. Floors if of wood should be protected with not less than 2 inches of concrete. If situated over damageable materials or products, floors should be waterproofed and provisions made for drainage to a safe place. Door openings to other rooms or buildings shall be provided with noncombustible sills raised 6 inches. Such openings shall be protected by standard fire doors of approved automatic or self-closing type. Where other portions of the building or other properties are exposed, windows shall be protected in a standard manner. Shelving shall be non-combustible.

Paragraph 445: Storage of Class I Liquids. Except where kept in sealed containers, Class I liquids shall be kept in storage tanks underground or outside the building and no discharge system shall have outlet inside building unless in a special room in accordance with Paragraph 444. Safety cans of not over ten gallons capacity may be used in any part of buildings except that if of over one gallon capacity, they shall be kept and used in special rooms in accordance with Paragraph 444. In garages and manufacturing plants the Chief of the Bureau of Fire Prevention may permit the storage of Class I liquids in approved portable wheeled tanks, where the nature of the business requires such storage and the discharge therefrom.

Paragraph 446: Storage of Class II Liquids. No container containing Class II liquids, of over five gallons capacity, may be used to fill other containers and appliances unless outside the building or in a special room in accordance with Paragraph 444, and all drawing except from safety cans, shall, where the nature of the liquid permits, be as provided for in Paragraphs 478 and 479. At service stations the dispensing of alcohol and other flammable anti-freeze solutions from drums shall be done outside the building, using pump or gravity discharge. Air pressure discharge shall not be used.

Paragraph 447: Exposed Windows Must Have Wired Glass. Any building other than a frame building, within the limits given in Paragraph 458, containing more than 500 gallons of flammable liquids in other than sealed containers, shall have all windows in side and rear walls and above the first floor on street fronts, exposed by other buildings within fifty feet, provided with wired glass in metallic sash and frame.

Paragraph 450: Manufacturing Plants Prohibited in Buildings Occupied as Dwellings. No manufacturing plant shall be located in any building used as a dwelling for more than one family unless all Class I liquids are kept in safety cans, not exceeding one quart in capacity, or in outside storage tanks as given in Paragraph 458, with no discharge inside the building.

Paragraph 451: Kettles, Vats, Etc. Kettles, vats, saturators and other vessels used in manufacturing processes, and containing more than five gallons of flammable liquids, shall not be located within five feet of combustible material nor within five feet of any exit, unless two or more exits are provided, and all combustible floor thereunder within a radius of ten feet shall be protected with non-combustible covering. All kettles and other open vessels shall be provided with substantial covers arranged to close automatically in case of fire or which can be easily and readily placed in position, or shall be provided with an adequate automatic extinguishing device.

Paragraph 452: Ventilation. Rooms in which Class I and II liquids are used in open vats, pans or other vessels, or in which Class I, II and III liquids are heated or otherwise treated in such manner as to produce flammable vapor, shall be well ventilated. Where natural ventilation is not sufficient the Chief of the Bureau of Fire Prevention may require forced ventilation with a vent opening of at least 20 square inches in the wall at the floor level near each open receptacle containing such liquids, or each heating device from which vapors may escape and opposite to any door or other air inlet. Such openings shall be covered with 2x2 mesh No. 16 galvanized wire web and shall be kept clear of all obstructions. From each vent opening a flue, of at least 20 square inches area and of non-combustible materials, built into the wall or floor or securely fastened thereto and so arranged as not to be subject to mechanical injury, shall conduct to and through a sparkless exhaust fan, to be run continuously, and which shall be of sufficient size to change the air in the room completely every five minutes. All discharge outlets of vent pipes shall be provided with 12x12 mesh or equivalent non-corrodible wire screen and shall be so located that they will not expose surrounding property and shall be acceptable to the Chief of the Bureau of Fire Prevention. Paragraph 461: Openings in Above Ground Tanks. Each above ground tank, inside or outside buildings, over 100 gallons in capacity shall have vent openings, excepting emergency relief openings, provided with approved flame arresters. The covers for manholes, handholes and gauge holes shall be made tight fitting.

(a) No form of emergency relief construction shall be required on vertical tanks with cone roofs having a slope of less than 2½ inches in 12 inches where the strength of the joint between the roof and the shell is no greater than that of the weakest vertical joint in the shell.

(b) Every other above ground tank used for the storage of Class I, II, or III liquids shall have some form of relief for preventing the development of excessive internal pressure in case of exposure fire surrounding the tank. This may take the form of either a weak seam in the top or at the joint between the top and the shell of the tank, or manhole covers kept closed by weight only, or some other form of emergency relief construction.

(c) In tanks where entire dependence for relief is placed upon some form of emergency relief construction other than a weak seam it shall have a capacity as prescribed by the Chief of the Fire Department, who shall give consideration to the design and construction of the tank as it affects the pressure which the tank may safely withstand, as indicated in the table below.

(a) Tanks shall be riveted, welded or brazed, and shall be soldered, caulked or otherwise made tight in a mechanical and workmanlike manner, and if to be used with a pressure discharge system shall safely sustain a hydrostatic test at least double the pressure to which tank may be subjected. Tanks shall be covered with asphaltum or other non-rusting paint or coating. All pipe connections shall be made through flanges or metal reinforcements securely riveted, welded or bolted to the tank and shall be made thoroughly tight. All openings shall be gas tight, except breather vent, which shall be protected by flame arresters as provided in Paragraph 461.

(b) Where tanks are to be of welded construction, the Chief of the Bureau of Fire Prevention shall require evidence of the integrity and responsibility of the firm or individual doing the work, the degree to which welders are qualified and the character of supervision maintained while welding is in process.

(c) Where it is proposed to construct a tank for the storage of flammable liquid under pressure, the Chief of the Bureau of Fire Prevention shall, prior to the issuance of a permit, require the submittal of detailed plans and specifications supplemented by detailed information including the maximum pressure under which the liquid will be stored, and the size and setting of the safety relief valve, so as to enable him to determine whether compliance with the unfired pressure vessel code of the A.S.M.E. should be required.

PIPING AND OTHER APPURTENANCES.

Paragraph 468: No Connections to Drains. All connections from tank to any house or sub-surface drainage system shall be so arranged as to prevent the flow of flammable liquid to any such system or the leakage of any flammable gases from such liquids, or approved flammable liquid collectors shall be provided in such connection .

Paragraph 469: Venting of Tanks. An open galvanized iron vent pipe arranged for proper draining, or an automatically operated vent, shall be provided for every tank which may contain flammable vapor. The lower end of the vent pipe shall not extend through the top into the tank for a distance of more than one inch. Vent openings, except those on underground fuel oil tanks, shall be provided with approved flame arresters. Vent openings and vent pipes shall be of sufficient size to prevent abnormal pressure in the tank during filling and except automatically operated vents, shall be not smaller than 1¼-inch pipe size. Arrestors shall be accessible for examination and repair. Vent pipes shall be provided with weatherproof hoods and terminate outside of building and, if tight connection is made in filling line, shall extend to a point one foot above the level of the top of the highest reservoir from which the tanks may be filled and preferably not less than two feet, measured horizontally and vertically, from any window or other building opening. Where a power pump is used in filling storage tanks and a tight connection is made to the fill pipe, the vent shall be not smaller than the fill pipe. The vent pipe from two or more tanks may be connected to one upright with the connection not less than one foot above the level of the top of the highest reservoir from which the tanks may be filled.

Paragraph 470: Valve in Drawing-Off Pipes. All drawing-off pipes terminating inside of any building shall have valves at the discharge end; when delivery is by gravity, pipe shall have a shut-off valve (which shall preferably be of the automatically closing type) and in addition shall have an emergency valve.

Paragraph 471 Valve Near Tank if Above Ground. Where tanks are above ground there shall be a valve located near the tank in each pipe. In case two or more tanks are cross-connected there shall be a valve near each tank in each cross-connection.

Paragraph 472 Pumps. Pumps delivering to or taking supply from above ground storage tanks shall be provided with valves on both suction and discharge of pump, and in delivering to tanks a check valve to prevent flow of liquid from tank to pump. Electric motors, unless of approved explosion-proof type, and internal combustion engines shall not be placed beneath tanks or elsewhere within the line of vapor travel.

Paragraph 473: Requirements for Piping. Piping used for flammable liquids shall be standard weight wrought iron, steel or brass pipe or approved brass or copper tubing; for working pressures in execss of 100 pounds per square inch extra heavy fittings shall be used. No pipe or tubing less than one-quarter inch internal diameter shall be used. Outside piping shall be protected against any mechanical injury when within 5 feet of ground level. Inside piping shall be rigidly supported.

Paragraph 474: Leaky Piping. Defective and leaking piping shall be made tight immediately or replaced.

Paragraph 475: Pipes for Class I and II Liquids in Rooms Containing Open Flames. Piping carrying Class I and II liquids, unless without joints or connections, shall not extend through any room which contains any open light or fire.

Paragraph 476: Filling Pipe. The end of the filling pipe for underground storage tanks for Class I and II liquids shall be carried to an approved location outside of any building, but not within 5 feet of any entrance door, or cellar opening; this filling pipe shall be closed by a screw cap.

Paragraph 477: Deliveries to Storage Tanks. Deliveries of flammable liquids of Class I and II, where practical, shall be made directly to the storage tank through the filling pipe by means of a hose or pipe between the filling pipe and barrel, tank wagon or tank car from which such liquid is being drawn.

Paragraph 478: Pump Required. Except as permitted in Paragraph 480, flammable liquids shall be drawn from tanks by pumps so constructed as to prevent leaking or splashing, or by some other system approved by the Chief of the Bureau of Fire Prevention, with controlling apparatus and piping so arranged as to allow control of the amount of discharge and prevent leakage or discharge inside the building by any derangement of the system. When inside a building, the pump or other drawing-off device for Class I or II liquids shall be located on or above the grade floor, preferably near an entrance or other well-ventilated place.

Paragraph 479: No Gravity Feed Permitted. Except as permitted in Paragraph 480, no tanks, drums, nor other containers inside a building, or discharging inside a building, shall be provided with a faucet or other bottom-drawing device which will permit the gravity flow of liquids inside the building. Pipes shall not terminate at any point lower than the level of source of supply.

Paragraph 480: Exceptions to Paragraph 478 and 479. The Chief of the Bureau of Fire Prevention may permit the storage and gravity flow of flammable liquids in connection with domestic oil burning equipments, in refineries, and in manufacturing and jobbing plants where the nature of the manufacturing process requires such storage and flow, and also the storage and gravity flow of commodities of Classes II and III in stores, plants and establishments, where the nature of the liquid will not permit pumping; provided that the contents of tanks holding Class I liquid shall be sufficient only for one day's operation and such storage shall be in a room in accordance with Paragraph 444.

Paragraph 482: Relief Valves for Pumps for Engines and Fuel Oil Equipments. In systems using pumps to supply auxiliary tanks or headers, which feed internal combustion engines or fuel oil burners, provision shall be made to return surplus oil to the supply tank; any valve installed in the line shall be of pressure relief type.

600 to 1200	12 gauge	12 gauge if bilged, otherwise 10 gauge
Over 1200	10 gauge	8 gauge

Tanks exceeding 1200 gallons in capacity, may be constructed with 12 gauge shells and 10 gauge heads provided they are subdivided into compartments of 600 gallons or less and are mounted on chassis equipped with low pressure balloon tires. Shell and head joints shall be welded, riveted and welded, brazed or riveted and brazed, riveted and caulked, or made tight by some equally satisfactory process. Each compartment of the completed tank shall be tested and proven tight at 5 pounds minimum pressure. Fill openings shall be 4 inches minimum diameter. Tanks in excess of 600 gallons capacity shall be subdivided into compartments, none of which shall exceed 600 gallons capacity. Each tank compartment shall be provided with a suitable operating vent, and in addition thereto venting facilities of such size and capacity as will prevent rupture of the tank from such internal pressures as may be created by exposure fires. All draw-off valves or faucets shall have discharge end threaded or otherwise so designed as to permit of tight connection with hose extending to fill-pipe. Every tank truck shall be provided with properly attached rear steel bumpers. The rear bumpers or chassis extension shall be so arranged as to adequately protect the draw-off valve or faucets in case of collision. Each compartment of a gravity discharge truck tank shall be equipped with a reliable and efficient shut-off valve located inside the shell of the tank in the compartment outlet, and except during delivery operations such valves shall be automatically kept closed, or shall be so interlocked with delivery operation that it will be mechanically closed when delivery operations are completed. The operating mechanism for such valves shall be provided with a secondary control, remote from the tank filling parts and discharge faucets for use in event of accidents or fire during delivery operations, and such control mechanism shall be provided with a fusible point which will cause valves to close automatically in case of fire. In every case there shall be provided between the shut-off valve seat and discharge faucet, a shear section which will break under strain and leave the shut-off valve seat intact. Tanks, chassis, axles and springs shall be metallically connected. Tank trucks shall be equipped with drag chains long enough to reach the ground. During the filling operation metallic contact shall be maintained between the fill pipe and the tank truck. The foregoing provisions shall also apply to the construction and operation of trailers and semi-trailers. All trailers shall be firmly and securely attached to the towing vehicle by means of suitable draw-bars, supplemented by safety chains. It shall be a misdemeanor to keep or place the above mentioned liquids in containers other than those marked as designed, or to use the containers for any other liquids or substances than those specified or fail to keep their exterior clean so that coloring and lettering are easily distinguishable. The Bureau of Fire Prevention may specify the location of the building or garage in which tank trucks and trailers may be stored when not in use or when undergoing repairs.

Paragraph 485: Refineries. No permit shall be granted for the establishment of a new plant or an addition to a plant for refining, distilling or condensing petroleum and natural gas within the limits of the city until after a survey has been made by the Chief of the Bureau of Fire Prevention and an investigation made of all hazardous conditions connected therewith. If there are no school, churches, hospitals or public halls within 300 feet, and no other buildings than those of the plant within 150 feet of the proposed distilling or condensing plant, and other conditions are consistent with the spirit and intent of this ordinance, the Chief of the Bureau of Fire Prevention shall grant a permit for the location desired; provided, also, that a guarantee to maintain an open space 150 feet on all sides shall be given by the applicant.

any such employee's services by another executive department, all whenever it deems such action necessary or advisable, for any reason.

(b) The mayor, in his discretion, may at any time and for any reason, transfer any employee from one executive department to another, where not otherwise limited by statute, and the amount of compensation of such employee shall remain at the sum payable by this budget in such prior position, unless otherwise prescribed in writing by the mayor and thereupon approved by the Common Council.

(c) Any such transfers of positions or reassignment of duties shall be at all times subject to further control and orders of the respective executive department, or the mayor; and the aggregate amount of compensation specified in this budget for all such positions and duties, in the one or more executive departments so affected, shall not be exceeded in fixing or paying any such compensation, along with that of all other such employees therein.

SECTION 9. Installation of chain grate stokers, where forced draft is contemplated, shall be so equipped that over-fire air may be admitted both at the front and rear of the furnace.

(e) Furnace Volume for Self-Contained Boilers: Boilers of the self-contained firebox type, where the water legs of the boiler form at least 80% of the side and rear walls, shall have such furnace volume that the heat release under any condition of operation shall not exceed 45,000 B.t.u. per cubic foot per hour. Where such boilers are operated in excess of 150% of rating, or where the fuel burning rate exceeds 5 pounds of coal per 10 square feet of heating surface per hour, or where the stokers under such boilers are not equipped with gradual acting control of coal feed and air supply, there must be introduced between the smoke connection and the chimney an approved fly-ash trap which will limit the discharge of solids in the combustion gases to the requirements of this Code.

(f) Precipitating Chamber: The rear walls of all water-tube boiler settings shall extend to the floor line, forming a precipitating chamber for the solids carried by the gases. Such chambers shall have openings to permit ready removal of the solids. In lieu of extending the rear walls to floor, an under-cut construction will be permitted, but in such cases the bottom of the last pass shall be equipped with cinder hoppers having easily operated gates to permit the ready removal of the solids. Such hoppers shall have sufficient capacity to store the solids for at least 12 hours of heaviest operation, and the design of the hoppers shall meet the approval of the Commissioner of Buildings.

(g) Stoker Control: Any stoker installation which emits solid matter in excess of the limit set in sub-section E-116 (c) may be condemned and required to be equipped with approved gradual acting air control or other fly-ash eliminating equipment before operating approval is given.

(h) Breeching Enlargement for Large Boilers: If the conditions surrounding the installation do not permit enlarging the area of the chimney at the breeching connection 33 1/3% in excess of the area of the top of the chimney, then the breeching shall be enlarged to a point ahead of the chimney connection so as to form a cinder or fly-ash trap. The transverse area of such cinder and fly-ash trap shall be at least 50% greater than the required area of the top of the chimney, and the trap shall be provided with hoppers and gates or other means for the ready removal of the accumulated fly and combustion ash.

(i) Induced Draft Fans: Where induced draft fans are used, the fans shall be of the cinder and fly-ash collecting type, unless other approved means are provided for the elimination of fly-ash.

(j) Cleaning and Inspection:

1. Small boilers and furnaces. All small boilers and furnaces shall be cleaned at least once annually. The gas passages and smoke pipe or breeching connection to the stack, including the base of the chimney and all traps or segregated places, shall be cleaned of all soot and fly-ash. The responsibility for compliance with this section shall rest with the owner or manager of the building in which said furnace or boiler is installed.

2. Large boilers and furnaces. All chimney bases, breechings and traps or segregating chambers of large boilers and furnaces shall be cleaned at least every four months of operation. Provision shall be made for the thorough wetting of the ash just before or during its removal. The wetting system will be adequate to prevent ash from being carried up the chimney during cleaning.

3. It shall be unlawful to open or keep open or partly open, any door or opening or chimney base below the entrance of the smoke pipe or breeching except for removal of accumulated ash; and such ash shall not be removed by blowing or otherwise forcing it through the top of the chimney.

(k) Sealing Stack Openings: The Commissioner of Buildings shall have authority to seal or lock any door or opening in stack bases, breechings, or segregating spaces for the purpose of determining the quantity of soot and ash accumulation. He shall also have authority to test and to check any flue-blowing device.

(l) Screens. Where considered necessary by the Commissioner of Buildings, all chimneys, flues and stacks which emit sparks shall be capped with approved screens.

(m) Stack Dampers: Every boiler or furnace installed shall have a manually operated device to control the stack draft. Within one (1) year of the effective date of this code a damper shall be installed in the breeching between the smoke-hood and chimney on all existing boilers and furnaces having six (6) square feet of grate surface or capacity of 12 horse power or equivalent. Said damper shall be substantially supported on two sides, constructed of material that will last a reasonable period of time, be readily accessible to the operator by means of a handle or lever. This damper must be closed when the operator or fireman cleans the boiler or furnace flues and smoke box to prevent soot and ashes being carried up the chimney during the cleaning period.

(n) Soot Blowing Devices for Fire-Tube Boiler. Steam or air lances or similar devices shall not be so operated in cleaning fire-tube boilers that the accumulations of soot and/or fly-ash will be discharged into the boiler breeching or stack and thus emitted into the atmosphere. These devices may be used only with the approval of the Commissioner of Buildings when and where they will not create an atmospheric nuisance.

Exception:—The above provisions do not prohibit the use of such devices provided the stack is so equipped with sprays, collectors, or other means of stopping the emission of soot and fly-ash.

Section 7. That Division E of Section 865 of General Ordinance No. 121, 1925, as amended, be and is hereby amended by adding thereto a section to be known as Sec. E-117, which section shall read as follows:

Sec. E-117. Advisory Board.

There shall be an Advisory Board of seven (7) members; six (6) of whom shall be appointed by the Mayor, and the seventh member shall be the Commissioner of Buildings, ex officio. This board shall act in a general advisory capacity to the Board of Public Safety and shall keep them informed as to the progress in fuel-burning technique and equipment.

The appointed members shall serve for a term of three (3) years, except that of the initially appointed members two (2) shall serve for one (1) year, two (2) for two (2) years, and two (2) for three (3) years.

One (1) of the members shall have had at least five (5) years business or administrative experience in the ownership or operation of industrial or commercial enterprises; one (1) member shall at the time of his appointment, and for at least five (5) years prior thereto, have been actively engaged in the management or ownership of apartment houses, hotels, or office buildings; one (1) member shall at the time of his appointment, and for at least five (5) years prior thereto, have been actively engaged as a chief operating engineer of a plant containing high pressure boilers; one (1) member shall, at the time of his appointment and for five (5) years prior thereto, have been actively engaged in the management or ownership of a retail coal yard; one (1) member shall, at the time of his appointment, and for at least five (5) years prior thereto, have been actively engaged in the mining or sale of solid fuel and shall understand the theory and practice of combustion; one (1) member shall at the time of his appointment, and for at least five (5) years prior thereto, have been actively engaged in the practice of designing or installing of heating and ventilating equipment, and shall be a registered professional engineer under the laws of the State of Indiana. Members appointed to fill vacancies shall have the same qualifications which their predecessors were required to have. The board shall elect its own chairman, who shall serve for one (1) year. Section 8. That Sub-Section (c) of Sec. E-201 of Division E of Section 865 of General Ordinance No. 121, 1925, as amended, be and is hereby amended to read as follows:

(c) Any plant (new, rebuilt, or reconstructed) having more than 1,200 square feet of steam radiation, or rated at more than 1,800 square feet of water radiation, according to the American Society of Heating and Ventilating Engineers, or boilers of more than 12 horsepower, or hot air heating plants having more than six (6) square feet of grate area, shall be an approved smokeless type or shall be equipped with mechanical methods of firing, coal, oil or gas; except that a permit may be issued for the use of coke only, in which event no other fuel shall be used in such plants and the use of other fuel in such plants shall constitute an offense against the City of Indianapolis. A permit will be issued for only one such boiler in a plant. In no case shall a high pressure boiler of more than 35 horsepower or its equivalent size in a low pressure boiler be installed without automatic firing equipment.

Section 9. That Sub-Section (5) of Sec. E-201 of Division E of Section 865 of General Ordinance No. 121, 1925, as amended, be and is hereby amended to read as follows:

(d) The projected grate area of any boiler using coal as a fuel shall be not less than one forty-fifth (1/45) of the heating surface of such boiler.

Section 10. That Sub-Section (a) of Sec. E-202 of Division E of Section 865 of General Ordinance No. 121, 1925, as amended, be and is hereby amended to read as follows:

(a) The distance between the shell and horizontal return tubular boilers and the dead plate grated tuyere nearest to the shell, shall be not less than the following, according to the diameter of the shell:

Dia. of Shell in Inches	Distance Between Shell and Dead Plate in Inches
42 and less	42

Over 72	72

Where it is proposed to use oil, powdered coal or sawdust and shavings as a fuel the distance between the shell and the dead plate shall be not less than the diameter of the shell and in no case less than sixty (60) inches.

Furnaces designed for burning sawdust and shavings or a combination of sawdust, shavings and coal, shall be of the full extension type. Sawdust and shavings shall not be blown into the furnace. Such furnaces shall be provided with an approved means of introducing auxiliary air over the fire.

Section 11. That Sub-Sections (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), (i), and (j) of Sec. 202 of Division E of Section 865 of General Ordinance No. 121, 1925, as amended, be and they are hereby repealed.

Section 12. That Sec. E-203 of Division E of Section 865 of General Ordinance No. 121, 1925, as amended, be and it is hereby repealed in its entirety, and that a new section, to be known as Sec. E-203, to read as follows, be substituted therefor:

Sec. E-203. Stokers. 1. General.

(a) The arrangement, equipment, manner of installation and operation of all stokers hereafter installed for use in connection with heating and power plants, and any subsequent alteration of stoker installations shall conform to the following provisions:

(b) Stoker Defined: The term "stoker" shall, for the purpose of this ordinance, be taken to mean a mechanical device for feeding solid fuel into the combustion chamber of a boiler or furnace used in connection with a heating plant, whether automatically or manually controlled.

(c) Non-automatic Stokers not Permitted: Stokers which are not equipped with automatic means of preventing excessive pressure or temperatures of the heating medium shall not be installed or operated in any location where a competent attendant will not be constantly on duty on the premises where such stoker is in operation.

(d) Firing Tools: Adequate firing tools shall be provided with each stoker installation. Stokers of less than 75 lb. capacity per hour will be provided with clinker-tongs and poker or slice bar. Larger stokers will be provided with a substantial slice-bar and hoe or rake. All firing tools must be neatly hung or stored in a convenient and safe location.

(e) Size and Coal Feed Rating Must Be Clearly Shown: Each stoker shall bear stenciled or raised letter name plate giving its size and/or coal-feed rating or have such information cast in a location easily accessible in order that the rating of the machine may be obtained by observation.

(f) Further Information Must Be Given Upon Request: The manufacturer, his representatives, or the seller of the equipment shall supply any information concerning the equipment or its installation, upon request to the office of the Combustion Engineer.

(g) Installation Must Permit Full Opening of Doors: No stoker may be installed in such a manner that it will block the opening of the firing door or tube-cleaning door to such an extent that it will seriously interfere with proper cleaning of the fire and/or tubes. When necessary, a small stoker should be installed at such angle as will allow full opening of doors for cleaning, and such special installations must meet the approval of the Combustion Engineer.

(h) Doors: Boiler doors shall be of sufficient size and so located that ash and clinkers can be easily removed.

(i) Automatic Controls: Except as provided in Sub-Section (c) above, each mechanical stoker shall be equipped with at least one (1) approved high-limit control so connected as to shut off power from stoker drive in the event of excessive pressure in a steam boiler, and one (1) approved low-water cut-off so placed that it will prevent the operation of the stoker when water is too low in the boiler. The maximum range of the steam-pressure regulator on a steam-heating system using cast iron radiators will not exceed 15 lbs. No steam-pressure gauge will be removed or left off a boiler to make room for a pressure control. Both the indicating gauge and pressure control will be connected to a boiler automatically fired. Hot-water high-limit controls on forced circulation hot-water systems (systems using a pump) will be of an approved immersion type and installed in the boiler. Hot-water high-limit controls on gravity hot-water systems must be of an approved immersion type installed in the boiler or in a header (by use of a tee) within six (6) feet of the boiler. Approved warm-air limit-controls will be installed in the furnace bonnet, hood, or warm-air plenum chamber, in a position that will permit the direct heat rays from the furnace body or main drum to strike the thermal element of the limit control, but with the element no closer than six (6) inches of the furnace body. In no case should a warm-air limit-control be set above 250° F.

2. Underfeed Stokers.

(a) Underfeed stokers installed under horizontally baffled water tube boilers shall have a minimum average distance between the tubes and the grate line of at least eighty-four (84) inches.

Note: This distance will give satisfactory results for loads up to one hundred and fifty (150) per cent rating. For greater loads this distance should be increased to keep furnace temperatures down to a reasonable figure.

(b) Underfeed stokers installed under vertically baffled water tube boilers shall have an average minimum distance between the tubes and the grate line of at least seven feet six inches (7′-6″).

(c) Underfeed stokers installed under vertical or highly inclined water tube boilers shall have a minimum distance, center of grate line to tubes through the midpoint of the furnace gas passage, of seven feet six inches (7′-6″).

Note: This distance will give satisfactory results for loads up to one hundred fifty (150) per cent rating. For greater loads this distance shall be increased and ample combustion space provided by setting roofs or arches higher.

Section 13. That Sec. E-204 of Division E of Section 865 of General Ordinance No. 121, 1925, as amended, be and it is hereby repealed and a new section to be known as Sec. E-204, which section shall read as follows, be and it is hereby substituted therefor:

Sec. E-204. Combustion Equipment Suitable for Fuel.

All combustion equipment shall be suitable for burning the fuel used without violating any provisions of this Code.

(d) Where warm air heating systems are installed in multiple-dwellings, each individual apartment must have a separate return air system connected to the heater unit or to the basement trunk. These ducts shall have tight fitting manual dampers which may be closed in case the return air from said ducts is undesirable.

(e) A fresh air duct of sufficient size shall be installed to supply clean fresh air to the heater to make up the deficiency caused by shutting off the return air system from one or two apartments. Said air duct shall be large enough to supply fresh air when, in the case of four apartments, one return duct is closed, and in the case of more than four apartments, two return ducts are closed. The heater unit shall be of sufficient size to supply heat as required by the Building Code when one or two return ducts are closed and an equivalent amount of fresh air is supplied instead of recirculated air from said ducts. In no case shall one heater unit serve more than eight apartments.

Section 16. That Sec. E-701 of Division E of Section 865 of General Ordinance No. 121, 1925, as amended, be and it is hereby repealed and that a new section to be known as Sec. E-701, to read as follows, be substituted therefor:

Sec. E-701. Manufacturers' Data.

Manufacturers of heating boilers hereafter installed in the City of Indianapolis, shall submit to the Combustion Engineer, such data as he shall require concerning heating surfaces, combustion spaces, etc.

Section 18. That Sec. E-703 of Division E of Section 865 of General Ordinance No. 121, 1925, as amended, be and it is hereby repealed and that a new section, to be known as Sec. E-703, which shall read as follows, be and it is hereby substituted therefor:

Sec. E-703. Provisions for Future Stoker-Firing.

All hand-fired boilers shall be so set as to later permit the installation of a stoker in accordance with the provisions of this code without major alterations such as pitting, raising the boiler, moving boiler enclosure walls.

Very truly yours,

CITY PLAN COMMISSION.

INTRODUCTION OF GENERAL ORDINANCES

By Councilman Ropkey:

GENERAL ORDINANCE No. 71, 1942

AN ORDINANCE to regulate and to license solicitations for charitable, patriotic, social welfare, benefit, philanthropic, and other similar purposes, or which use such an appeal in connection with any sale to the public in the City of Indianapolis, Indiana; requiring registration of those engaged in solicitations for religious purposes; prohibiting the use of false, deceptive or misleading statements or methods; providing for the creation and functioning of a Charity Solicitations Commission; designating a time when it shall become effective; and providing a penalty.

WHEREAS, the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, has determined that numerous persons, from time to time, have been and are continuing to solicit funds, property and aid in the City of Indianapolis, and to sell items of merchandise, on the representation that such funds, or a part thereof, so derived are to be used for charitable, patriotic, religious, or similar purposes, when in truth and in fact the same are used wholly, or in large part, for the private profit of the individuals promoting such solicitations; that a great variety of frauds and misleading devices are employed in such solicitations; that deliberate imitations of the names, slogans, and familiar devices of well known and worthy charitable and religious organizations are fraudulently used and imposed on the public; that as a result of such pernicious activities, worthy charitable and religious organizations are harmed by the suspicion engendered by these practices; that the residents of this city have in many cases been defrauded and imposed upon for lack of adequate regulation and protection from such practices; that the rapid increase in fraudulent solicitations by persons falsely claiming that they are acting for war or other patriotic purposes has created an emergency making immediate action necessary to prevent such fraudulent solicitations; and, that the public safety, morals, peace, comfort, convenience and general welfare demand the exercise of the police power of this city in the premises, by means of the enactment and enforcement of this ordinance, NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA:

Section 1. LICENSE NECESSARY. That the aforesaid preamble is here incorporated by this reference thereto and accordingly, it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, organization, co-partnership, company, society, association or corporation, or for any agent, member, officer or representative thereof, (each and all whereof are hereinafter included under the word "person", which shall also include all genders, and the plural number), directly or indirectly, to solicit money, donations of money or property or financial assistance of any kind, or to sell, or offer to sell any article, tag, service, emblem, publication, ticket, magazine, membership, book, card, chance, advertisement, advertising space, subscription, commodity, or anything else of value, on the plea or the representation that such sale or solicitation, or that all or any part of the proceeds, are for a charitable, social service, welfare, benefit, benevolent, civic, fraternal, patriotic or philanthropic purpose, or that all or any part of the proceeds are for the benefit, use or welfare of the organization, or the cause under whose name, or in whose behalf, such solicitation is conducted, either on the streets, or the premises of any office or business, or by house to house canvass, or in any other place, either public or private, in the City of Indianapolis, by means of telephone, telegraph, messenger, personal solicitation, mail, radio, or public announcement, or in any other way than those just enumerated, unless such person shall have first been duly licensed, as provided in this ordinance: PROVIDED, however, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to solicitations by or in behalf of any established organization, society, association or corporation, which is organized and operated exclusively for philanthropic, benevolent, fraternal, charitable, religious, or reformatory purposes, and which is not operated for pecuniary profit and where no part of the proceeds or net earnings thereof inures to the benefit of any person, in his individual capacity, and where such solicitations are conducted among and are limited to the members thereof, by other members or officers thereof, so serving voluntarily and without remuneration; or where such solicitations from any persons may be in the form of collections or contributions from any person at the regular assembly or services of any church, religious organization or association, society, lodge, benevolent order or fraternity or similar organization, or of any branch thereof; and PROVIDED further, however, That this ordinance shall not apply to any other solicitations for any other purposes specifically permitted by law.

Section 2. CHARITY SOLICITATIONS COMMISSION CREATED.

There is hereby created for the administration of the matters regulated and controlled by this ordinance, a Charity Solicitations Commission, which shall be composed of six members, who shall serve without remuneration for such services, and who shall be appointed by the Mayor. In the beginning, the members of such Commission shall be appointed to serve as follows: two for one year, two for two years, and two for three years. At the expiration of their respective terms, there shall be appointed annually two members who shall serve for a term of three years. Any vacancies occurring shall be filled in the same manner as provided for in the original appointment. The Commission shall provide for and elect its own officers, including a secretary; determine the time and place of its meetings; and shall, except as herein otherwise provided, have power to adopt such rules and regulations as in its own judgment shall be necessary for the conduct of its business and the proper administration of this ordinance. The Commission shall maintain an office either in the City Hall, or in such place as it may designate, and keep therein all its official records.

Section 4. CONDITIONS OF LICENSING AND LICENSE FEE.

INVESTIGATION: CONDITIONS OF APPROVAL OF APPLICATION:

CERTIFICATION TO THE CITY CONTROLLER.

Upon receipt of any application, as provided in Section 3 hereof, the Charity Solicitations Commission shall make, or cause to be made, a careful investigation of all facts so submitted and also such further investigation as the Commission shall deem necessary, so as to enable it to determine the nature and character of the proposed solicitation, and of the organization in charge thereof and the representatives of such organizations who shall conduct the same, or in whose name the solicitation shall be conducted, and whether all requirements of this ordinance, as to such applications, have been complied with.

Upon request, the applicant shall make available for inspection by the Commission, or any person designated by them for such purpose, any or all of the applicant's books, records and papers at any reasonable time before the application is granted, during the time the license is in effect, or after it has expired.

The Commission shall approve such application, and shall certify such fact in writing to the City Controller of the City of Indianapolis, PROVIDED a majority of the Commission shall find it to be true and correct, insofar as they may be pertinent to the application in question, that all of the following facts or conditions, surrounding the applicant and organization, its agents or solicitors, and the conduct of the proposed solicitation itself, have been and will be complied with:

(a) That all of the statements made in the application are true.

(c) That the cost of raising the funds will be reasonable. Any cost in excess of twenty-five per cent of the gross amount collected shall be considered to be unreasonable unless special facts are presented showing that peculiar reasons make a cost higher than twenty-five per cent reasonable in the particular case.

(i) That no monies of the organization are on loan, directly or indirectly, to any officer, director, trustee, or employee thereof, unless such fact, with full particulars, is properly set out in such application.

(j) That the particular work for which such organization has been organized, or for which such solicitation will be conducted, has been, and will be, faithfully performed at all times.

(k) That the officers, employees, agents, and representatives of such organization are reputable, responsible persons and are citizens of the United States, and are of good moral character and business integrity.

(l) That the organization has exercised reasonable care in the selection of persons of good moral character and business integrity who will manage, supervise or conduct such solicitation, or who will in any way handle the proceeds.

(m) That the organization is maintaining, or will maintain, a satisfactory system of accounting, or of reporting on funds donated or received.

(n) That such solicitation will not use a charity or patriotic appeal as a means of also selling private merchandise or promoting personal or commercial interests which are apart from the organization for which such solicitation is authorized.

(o) That in the event such solicitation is to be conducted by means of boxes or receptacles maintained in public locations, each such box or receptacle shall have plainly marked thereon the name and address of the sponsoring organization, and that all such containers will be sealed and handled in such a manner that their contents will be properly accounted for.

(p) That the applicant organization has not failed or refused to properly report any previous solicitation or donations or funds, or to make any report, or to provide any information, as provided for in this ordinance, and as required or requested thereunder by the Charity Solicitations Commission.

(q) That the methods, or any part of them, to be used in the conduct of the proposed solicitation will not be misleading or deceptive, or conducive to misunderstanding on the part of the public or those solicited as to the purposes for which such solicitation is being conducted, or as to the manner in which any funds obtained will be distributed.

(r) The Commission shall file in its office and serve upon each applicant, either in person or by mail, a written statement of its findings and decisions.

Section 5. LICENSE ISSUANCE AND FEE. NON-TRANSFERABLE.

Upon receipt of a written notification of approval from the Charity Solicitations Commission, as provided in Section 4 above, and upon receipt from the applicant of an issuance fee of Three Dollars ($3.00), the City Controller shall issue a license to such applicant for the period designated in such notification. Any license approved and issued under the provisions of this ordinance shall be non-transferable; PROVIDED, however, That this shall not prevent any licensee from using any number of solicitors and representatives as shall be reported to the Commission.

Section 6. SOLICITORS' CREDENTIALS.

Each solicitor or agent representing any licensee under the provisions of this ordinance shall be provided with proper credentials or an identification card, the form of which shall be approved by the Charity Solicitations Commission, which card or credentials shall show clearly the name of the licensee, the number of the license issued, the name or number and address of the solicitor, the expiration date of the license, and prominently thereon shall appear the words: "SOLICITOR'S IDENTIFICATION, This Is Not An Endorsement." No person shall solicit under a license granted by the provisions of this ordinance without a copy of such credentials in his possession. Said credentials must be shown, upon request, to all persons solicited, and to any representative of the Commission or to any police officer of the City of Indianapolis.

Section 7. LICENSE DURATION AND RENEWAL.

The Charity Solicitations Commission shall determine from the application, and from such facts as may be developed in connection with such application, the period for which such license shall be approved and granted, provided that such period shall not exceed three (3) calendar months; and the commission shall certify to the City Controller the period for which said Controller shall issue such license: PROVIDED, however, That the Commission, upon the receipt of such further application, information or reports as it may deem necessary to safeguard the interests of the public and carry out the purposes of this ordinance, may renew and extend such license for successive additional periods of not to exceed three (3) months.

Section 8. REQUIRING REPORTS.

The Charity Solicitations Commission may require from any licensee hereunder any reports or information at any time and at such intervals as in the discretion of the commission shall be necessary for the successful administration of the provisions of this ordinance and the protection of the public in the City of Indianapolis.

Section 9. WRITTEN RECEIPTS REQUIRED.

Any person receiving money or anything having a value of one dollar ($1.00) or more from any contributor as a result of a solicitation made pursuant to a license granted under this ordinance, shall give to the contributor a written receipt signed by the solicitor, and showing plainly the name and license number of the organization under whose name and sponsorship the solicitation is conducted, the date, and the amount received: PROVIDED, however, That this section shall not apply to any contributions collected by means of a closed box or receptacle used in solicitation with the written approval of the Commission, where it is impractical to determine the source or amount of such contributions.

Section 10. KEEPING OF BOOKS AND RECORDS.

No license shall be granted to any applicant unless the person or organization involved shall demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Commission that a proper system of accounting is maintained whereby all receipts and disbursements of any kind are entered upon the books or records of the treasurer or other financial officer of such person or organization.

Section 11. REVOCATION OR SUSPENSION OF LICENSE.

If, upon receipt of written information, or upon its own investigation, the Charity Solicitations Commission shall find that any agent or representative of the licensee is misrepresenting or making untrue statements in conducting the solicitation; or has made untrue statements in the application; or that the organization, or its solicitors, agents, officers, or representatives, have violated any of the provisions of this ordinance, or of any other ordinances, or statute; or if any conditions or practices are found which would have prevented licensing in the first place; or that in any other way the solicitation has been conducted, or is being conducted in a manner that is deceptive, misleading, or dishonest, and not in conformity with the intent and purpose of this ordinance; or if it is represented in any way that any license granted hereunder is an endorsement of such solicitation; then the Charity Solicitations Commission shall certify such fact to the Mayor of the City of Indianapolis, who shall proceed to conduct a hearing, as provided for generally by statute, and he may therefore revoke or suspend such license in the manner provided by law in such cases. The Mayor shall certify his action to the holder of the license, the Commission, and the Chief of Police.

Section 12. REPORT REQUIRED FROM LICENSE HOLDER.

It shall be the duty of all persons issued a license under this ordinance to furnish to the Charity Solicitations Commission within thirty (30) days after the solicitation has been completed, a detailed report and financial statement showing the amount raised by the solicitation, the amount expended in collecting such funds, including a detailed report of the wages, fees, commissions, and expenses paid to any person in connection with such solicitation, and the disposition of the balance of the funds collected by the solicitation: PROVIDED, however, That the Charity Solicitations Commission may extend the time for the filing of the report required by this section for one or more additional periods of thirty (30) days, upon a showing that the filing of the report within the time specified will work unnecessary hardship on the licensee. The licensee shall make available to the Charity Solicitations Commission, or to any person designated in writing by the Charity Solicitations Commission as their representative for such purpose, all books, records, and papers whereby the accuracy of the report required by this section may be checked.

Section 13. RELIGIOUS SOLICITATIONS—REGISTRATION AND CERTIFICATE REQUIRED — CREDENTIALS FOR SOLICITORS.

No person shall solicit contributions for any religious purpose within the City of Indianapolis without a certificate from the Charity Solicitations Commission. Application for a certificate shall be made to the Charity Solicitations Commission upon forms provided by the Commission. Such application shall be sworn to, or affirmed, and shall contain the following information, or in lieu thereof, a statement of the reason or reasons why such information cannot be furnished:

(a) The name and address or headquarters of the person applying for the permit.

(g) The name and address of the person or persons by whom the receipts of such solicitations shall be disbursed.

(k) The estimated cost of the solicitation.

(l) The amount of any wages, fees, commissions, expenses or emoluments to be expended or paid to any person in connection with such solicitations, and the names and address of all such persons.

(m) A financial statement for the last preceding fiscal year of any funds collected for religious purposes by the applicant, said statement giving the amount of money so raised, together with the cost of raising it, and final distribution thereof.

(n) A full statement of the character and extent of the religious work being done by the applicant within the City of Indianapolis.

(o) A statement to the effect that if a license is granted, it will not be used or represented in any way as an endorsement by the City of Indianapolis, or by any department or officer thereof.

(p) Such other information as may be submitted to the Charity Solicitations Commission in order for them to determine the kind and character of the proposed solicitation.

If, while any application is pending, or during the term of any certificate granted thereon, there is any change in fact, policy, or method that would alter the information given in the application, the applicant shall notify the Charity Solicitations Commission in writing thereof within twenty-four hours after such change.

Upon receipt of such application, the Charity Solicitations Commission shall forthwith issue to the applicant a certificate of registration. The certificate shall remain in force and effect for a period of three (3) months after the issuance thereof, and may be renewed upon the expiration of this period upon the filing of a new application as provided for in this section. Certificates of registration shall bear the name and address of the person by whom the solicitation is to be made, the number of the certificate, the date issued, and a statement that the certificate does not constitute an endorsement by the City of Indianapolis, or by any of its departments or officers, of the purpose or of the person conducting the solicitation. All persons to whom such certificates of registration have been issued shall furnish credentials to their agents and solicitors, such credentials to conform to the requirements specified for credentials in Section 6 of this ordinance, and a copy of such credentials shall be filed with the Charity Solicitations Commission at the time of the filing of the application for a certificate. No person shall solicit for any religious cause without having such credentials in his possession, together with a copy of the certificate of registration under which the solicitation is being conducted, and such person shall, upon demand, present these credentials and this copy of the certificate to any person solicited or to any representative of the Commission, or to any police officer of the City of Indianapolis: PROVIDED, however, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to any established church or religious organization or association, organized and operated exclusively for religious purposes and not operated for pecuniary profit of any person, if the solicitations by such established church or religious organization or association are conducted among the members thereof by other members or officers thereof, voluntarily and without remuneration for making such solicitations, or if the solicitations are in the form of collections or contributions from any persons at the regular assemblies or services of any such established church or religious organization or association.

Section 14. INVESTIGATION OF AFFAIRS OF PERSONS SOLICITING FOR RELIGIOUS PURPOSES AND PERSONS EXEMPT FROM LICENSE AND CERTIFICATE REQUIREMENTS — PUBLICATION OF FINDINGS.

The Charity Solicitations Commission is authorized to investigate the affairs of any person or organization soliciting for religious purposes, under a certificate issued under Section 13, and the affairs of any organization specifically enumerated and exempted from the requirements of a license under the first proviso of Section 1, or exempted from the requirements of a certificate under Section 13, and to make public its written findings in order that the public may be fully informed as to the status and affairs of any of said persons. Said church or religious organization or association hall make available to the Charity Solicitations Commission, or to any representative designated in writing by the Commission for such specific purpose, all books, records, or other information requested and reasonably necessary to enable the Commission fully and fairly to inform the public of all facts necessary to a full understanding by the public of the work and methods of operation of such persons: PROVIDED, however, That before the public release of any findings under this section, the Charity Solicitations Commission must first serve a copy of said findings upon the one so investigated and at the time of the release of their findings they must also release a copy of any written statement such one may file with the Commission in explanation, denial, or confirmation of said findings.

Section 15. PENALTIES.

AN ORDINANCE of the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, reallocating and appropriating the sum of Seven Thousand Dollars ($7,000) now in the City Bond Fund as a part of the proceeds of the sale of "City of Indianapolis City Hospital Bonds of 1941", and fixing a time when the same shall take effect.

WHEREAS, Section 1 of Appropriation Ordinance No. 5, 1941, as amended by Section 1 of Appropriation Ordinance No. 9, 1942, as now in effect and to which reference is here made, allocated for five specific purposes, the amount of the total proposed expenditures thereof at the City Hospital aggregating the sum of Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000); and

WHEREAS, the subsequent involvement of the United States in the present war, has precluded the carrying out in full of the five purposes and proposed expenditures thereof as so set out and appropriated in said ordinances, so that an additional reallocation in such estimated specific amounts is now necessary, and by a revision in the plans for the installation of five (5) new elevators, an estimated saving of Seven Thousand Dollars ($7,000) in the appropriation thereof can be effected; and

WHEREAS, the war emergency has resulted in rising costs and it is now not possible to carry out the construction of the water filtration plant and the reconstruction of the surgical building, together with the necessary equipment at the original estimated cost, and an acute emergency exists, due to the war, which makes it immediately necessary and preferable that the City Hospital water supply be adequately protected and purified, and the necessary changes in the surgical building be completed; and the additional sum of Seven Thousand Dollars ($7,000) so required can be obtained by the aforesaid reduction of said originally estimated expenditure for said elevators; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA:

Section 1. That there is hereby appropriated from the sum specified in item 2 of Section 1 of Appropriation Ordinance No. 5, 1941, the sum of Seven Thousand Dollars ($7,000), thereby revising the sum for the construction of elevators to Sixty-eight Thousand Dollars ($68,000), and the amount so reduced is hereby reallocated and appropriated for the purposes set forth in items I and 3 of the original Appropriation Ordinance No. 5, 1941, as follows:

1. For the construction of a new aerating and filtration plant with a building to house the same, together with all necessary exterior and interior piping and all other necessary matters appurtenant thereto, the additional sum of Fifteen Hundred Dollars ($1,500.00), making the total appropriation therefor the sum of Seventy-six Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($76,500.00).

2. For the reconstruction of the surgical building, together with all necessary equipment and resulting necessary construction charges, the additional sum of Five Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($5,500.00), making the total appropriation Seventy Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($70,500.00).

Section 2. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval by the mayor, and compliance with the laws governing additional appropriations.

Mr. Ransom presented the following written motion to amend General Ordinance No. 83, 1942.

December 21, 1942.

Mr. President:

I move to amend General Ordinance No. 83, 1942, to read as follows:

GENERAL ORDINANCE No. 83, 1942

AN ORDINANCE increasing the number of taxicabs, licensed pursuant to General Ordinance No. 87, 1935, as amended, of the City of Indianapolis, Indiana; to amend Section 3 of said ordinance; and fixing a time when the same shall take effect.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA:

Section 1. It is hereby determined by the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis that by virtue of the present war emergency, the declaration of public policy heretofore adopted and contained in Section 2 of General Ordinance No. 87, 1935, limiting the number of taxicabs, does not permit enough taxicabs to be licensed in order to provide adequate taxicab service to the residents of said city and that in particular the taxicab facilities afforded the Negro population of said city under said ordinance are at present grossly inadequate. Therefore, it is hereby determined that the number of taxicab licenses permitted to be issued under the provisions of General Ordinance No. 87, 1935, as amended, be and is hereby increased so that there may be a total of four hundred twenty (420) taxicabs duly licensed to operate within the City of Indianapolis. All additional taxicab licenses issued by virtue of the passage of this ordinance shall be subject to all the terms, conditions and provisions contained in General Ordinance No. 87, 1935, as amended; subject, however, to the condition that not less than twenty (20) of such additional taxicab licenses shall be issued to persons of the Negro race or to partnerships or corporations composed of persons of the Negro race. The said declaration of public policy contained in Section 2 of General Ordinance No. 87, 1935, is hereby expressly re-ordained, except in so far as said policy may at present limit the number of taxicab licences below the number of four hundred twenty (420), which number is at present deemed essential to the public welfare.

Section 2. That Section 3 of General Ordinance No. 87, 1935, be amended to read as follows:

"Section 3. Any person, persons, firm, company, association, partnership or corporation issued licenses under this ordinance shall be entitled to have a renewal license issued for each year for each license issued under this ordinance, provided an application for such renewal license is filed with the City Controller within ten (10) days of the date of the expiration of any such license, and provided that said applicant otherwise qualifies for such licenses by complying with all the provisions of this ordinance required as conditions precedent to the issuance of the renewal licenses. No license may be transferred or assigned from one licensee to any other person, firm, company, association, partnership or corporation. Any licensee may, however, transfer a license from one cab to another of which such licensee is the owner and/or operator; provided that the first cab be permanently retired from service, upon application to the said city controller, and the payment of a transfer fee of fifty cents (50c).

"Any such transfer or renewal of license shall be granted upon the application of the person or party who is registered in the office of the Secretary of State of Indiana as the owner of the vehicle for which said license was issued, and where such license was issued jointly to the owner of such vehicle and any other person, firm or corporation designated in the application for such license as an operator having use or control of such vehicles, such transfer or renewal shall be granted upon the application of the owner of such vehicle, without requiring the signature of the operator designated as having use or control of such vehicle.

"The City Controller may require any such applicant for transfer or renewal of such license to exhibit the certificate of title issued by the Secretary of State of Indiana for the vehicle for which license was issued, and the person or party in whose name such vehicle is registered in the office of the Secretary of State of Indiana shall be deemed to be the owner thereof.

"If the City Controller shall determine that the public interest is affected by any such application for transfer or renewal of license, he may refer such application for transfer to the Board of Public Safety, and shall grant or refuse such application for transfer of such license upon such terms and conditions as the Board of Public Safety shall fix. The City Controller shall refer any application for a new license to the Board of Public Safety and shall grant or refuse such application for a new license upon such terms and conditions as the Board of Public Safety shall fix."

Section 3. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and approval by the mayor.
